

Say if the following sentences are True (T) or False (F)

The modern American family

1. Addicks said the overwhelming response was racist.
2. General Mills stopped from releasing the second advert on Super Bowl Sunday.
3. According to Andrew Cherlin, the change in society has reached an ending point.
4. According to the report, more than 50 percent of new marriages are interracial or interethnic.
5. In the 1950s, family was considered in an only way.
6. Moore and Perez, the family who appears on the video, adopted their first child in 2001.
7. In the United States, same-sex marriage is legal in 17 states.
8. According to Mark Addicks, of General Mills, the values and foundations of a family are completely opposite in 'alternative' families.

Text adapted from CBS NEWS May 11, 2014, 9:18 AM

<http://www.cbsnews.com/news/the-modern-american-family/>

<http://www.cbsnews.com/news/the-modern-american-family/2/>

KEY

1. Addicks said the overwhelming response was racist. F
2. General Mills stopped from releasing the second advert on Super Bowl Sunday. (F)
3. According to Andrew Cherlin, the change in society has reached an ending point. (F)
4. According to the report, more than 50 percent of new marriages are interracial or interethnic. F
5. In the 1950s, family was considered in an only way. T
6. Moore and Perez, the family who appears on the video, adopted their first child in 2001. T
7. In the United States, same-sex marriage is legal in 17 states. T
8. According to Mark Addicks, of General Mills, the values and foundations of a family are completely opposite in 'alternative' families. F